

Coronavirus: Continuum of Care Service Delivery Updates

Service Adjustments

The Cornerstone of Beaver County: Is not accepting walk-ins at this time. Call 724.846.6400 for assistance. Coordinated Entry screenings are also still available via phone. Anyone who is having trouble accessing emergency shelter should call The Cornerstone for assistance with securing alternative options. They also have bus tickets (if using public transportation social distancing practices are strongly encouraged!). The on-call phone number available outside of business hours is: 724.494.0726.

Housing Authority of Beaver County: The Main Office is closed to the general public. A moratorium on evictions has been put into place for people behind on their rent. No late fees will be charged. Residents are advised to pay their rent either by mail, use the dropbox at the Main Office located at the entrance door from the parking lot or pay online at www.beavercountyhousing.org Walk-in payments at the Main Office have been suspended until further notice. Also, no other face to face meetings will be held at this time. Case managers and building managers continue to remain available via phone for assistance. The Community Centers and gazebos in the public housing buildings are currently closed. Maintenance workers will focus on sanitizing communal surfaces and areas. Only emergency work orders will be performed. As a result, unit turn over may be delayed. Call your Manager or the Main Office should you have any questions. Also, more information is available at www.beavercountyhousing.org or by calling 724.775.1220.

Women's Center of Beaver County: Due to practicing social distancing, the WC has decreased capacity at this time. They are still accepting clients but have reduced space. They are only accepting Beaver County residents at this time to help reduce the spread of the virus. Advocacy at the hospitals could be limited should the hospital system further restrict visitors. Further, non-residential services (counseling, advocacy, education etc) will be offered via phone or other electronic means.

The Salvation Army: Harmony House, Friendship Homes, and RRH staff are primarily available via phone. Visitors are prohibited at Harmony House at this time. The Salvation Army is also utilizing their mobile canteen to provide meals at various locations throughout the county. See attached schedule.
